PATIENCE AND FORTITUDE

There's a Sunny Future Ahead for Fast Thinking, Hard Working Coinmen with Faith in Themselves and Their Industry, with Patience, and with Fortitude to Go Ahead Progressively Under Any and All Conditions.

NEW YORK—Patience and fortitude. Two great and powerful words. Two words which should be adopted by all in the coin machine industry today as their watchwords for the forthcoming year.

The members of this industry must practise patience at this time. They must realize that the adjustment of general economies thruout all business, everywhere in the nation, will affect them, just as it is affecting everyone else.

Therefore, patience is today a virtue. Patience will help every coin machine man in the country to gradually overcome whatever problems he now has, and will lead him into the new era into which this industry has entered, with greater confidence and with a surety that he will prosper and grow great.

But, patience by itself, isn't all that will win for him in this business. There must, along with patience, also be greater fortitude shown by all engaged in this field. This is more needed today than ever before.

This showing, to use a common word, of "guts", is what everyone in this coin operated machines business needs to successfully ride over any such economic period as American business is now undergoing.

Patience and fortitude. A smiling countenance. Confidence and resolve. Faith. Faith in himself, his industry and his country, is what every coinman must have.

The "gloom boys" of the trade had a field day at this past convention. Yet, it was noted by those who look far enough ahead, that the operators themselves were not gloomy. They realized that they were in "the best business in the world" and that they were continuing ever onward, regardless of whatever economic adjustment periods came along.

Therefore, the time has arrived when the "gloom boys" must be banished from this field. They must be told to get the hell out of this business and make way for those who have faith, confidence, patience, good old American "guts" and believe in this industry and their nation.

The story of the "gloom boys" is not unfamiliar to all in the coin machine industry. These are the same coinmen who saw "the end of the industry" when the war started. They are also the same men who again saw "the end of the industry" when the war was over.

And they are again seeing "the end of the industry" as economic conditions run into several adjustments thruout the nation to bring about a more efficient and better coin machine business.

This is definitely not the time for gloom. This is the time for patience and fortitude. This is the time when every coinman in the nation must carefully study his business and must patiently, but with fortitude, make the necessary adjustments to assure his profitable continuance in the industry.

He must change his commission methods. He must arrange for a better understanding with his location owners. He must see to it that every machine he has on his route is new, clean looking, better playing, more appealing than it has ever been before.

He must also make it his business to be in constant and closer contact with all of his fellow operators so that he can work cooperatively to assure this industry a better and more profitable future.

He must devote his complete time to this business as he has never done before. And he, too, must make adjustments, as have all other business men, so that he can be assured of successfully outlasting any of the present forced recessions without losing one inch of ground.

Patience, lots of it, will be required in the weeks and months to come. Fortitude, a tremendous amount of it, will prove necessary.

Both these fine virtues — patience and fortitude — are, therefore, the new watchwords and, should also become the also become the new code for the entire field.

There is no doubt that as patience and fortitude are adopted — the "gloom boys" will be chased out of this business — for there is definitely a sunny future ahead for the hard working, fast thinking, clear headed coinman who will conduct his business efficiently and with complete control over every nut, every screw, every bit of rip cord and, at the same time, make personal contact with his location owners to arrange for a more equitable share of the intake of his equipment.

The time, then, has arrived when all in this field must work more closely together than ever before. And the working together of all men in this business will best be guided by the use of patience and fortitude.

America begs for economical entertainment, merchandising and service. The coin machine industry offers the public these economic necessities. This is the time when the importance of the equipment of this industry should be stressed to one and all. And, there's no doubt, that everyone in the field will look back on present conditions with a smile of triumph in the months yet to come.

This is not the time to hesitate. This is not the time to falter. This is the time to go ahead — faster, more intelligently, more efficiently, than ever before. But, this is also the time for patience — and, especially, the time for a great and tremendous amount of fortitude.

Patience and fortitude, used intelligently will prove the saviour of the industry and will, at the same time, assure everyone the great, grand, successful future to which all have looked forward to so hopefully and so eagerly since the war ended.

MUSIC OPS PREPARE TO OPPOSE NEW BILLS BEFORE CONGRESS

Fellows Bill (H. R. 2570) Presented by ASCAP and Bill Regarding Non-Commercial Records from Rep. Carroll D. Kearns of Labor Committee Now Being Carefully Watched by Juke Box Leaders.

NEW YORK—The entire automatic music industry of America is watching Washington today as it has never watched this legislative city before.

It is already known that ASCAP (American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers) have reintroduced their last year's measure, Rep. Frank Fellows bill (H.R. 2570) which was discussed before the Sub-Committee of the Committee on the Judiciary during seven public hearings.

Now, in addition to this bill (H.R. 2570) it is reported that there will be introduced by Rep. Carroll D. Kearns (Rep. Pa.) who heads the Congressional Labor Committee, a bill which will ask that no non-commercial records be played for commercial purposes.

This latter has long been an outstanding argument. Many long months ago leaders in the trade asked that recordings be manufactured which would bear on their labels the inscription, "For use in automatic musical instruments", instead of the present statement which reads that the records are manufactured "for home use only".

They also believe that the time has arrived when a "showdown" must be put to the test to decide just what is what regarding the wording on the labels of the average record sold for use in juke boxes.

The trade, they claim, cannot simply stick its head into sand, like an ostrich and forever attempt to hide from the fact that it is an industry which uses records, and in great volume.

The record sellers themselves must come to some line of demarcation. They realize that the nation's juke boxes have been of all-powerful help in continuing volume sales.

Somewhere there is a complete and logical answer to the entire problem of ASCAP and others who are trying their mightiest to force this industry to pay them tribute.

There is also no doubt that there would be full agreement to facts, if definite and logical facts existed, and further, if all who are at present engaged in this field would come to the fore and completely, frankly and honestly express their opinions regarding their businesses.

Great strides have been made by the juke box industry. In Chicago, during the past meetings, the nation's leading associations have come together and have decided to oppose all such national legislative action against them.

These men believe that they are carrying forth with a certain economical type of musical entertainment which is most definitely helping the composers, authors and publishers of America to realize greater glory, greater prestige and greater income.

There is no doubt that without the national power of the juke box, many of the works of these people would be relegated to oblivion. The most outstanding among these men have honestly admitted this fact.

The juke boxes of this country are not trying, in any fashion whatsoever, to withhold from these members of ASCAP, nor from the commercial and non-commercial aspects of any recording, its full and true value.

In fact, in the very opposite, they are trying with all might and main to make such works of musical art more prominent, more outstanding and more lucrative for their authors, composers, publishers, and manufacturers.

There is nothing the juke box industry asks in turn from these people. No one, over the years, has arisen in the coin operated musical field, to ask these men to "pay" for what the juke boxes can accomplish for them.

Yet, artist after artist, composer after composer, author after author, publisher after publisher, has come to this field for support and, what's more, has received it — unselfishly, open-heartedly and most completely in every regard.

The time has arrived when the nation's juke box leaders must ask for greater consideration for the work which they have done, in return. Perhaps, then, this may be the answer to all who ask tribute from the juke box field.

Perhaps the time has arrived when this industry, too, should begin to seek more return for what it gives. Perhaps this, then, is the time when the nation's music machine leaders should carefully evaluate what they have to offer to the nation's authors, composers and publishers, as well as to the record manufacturers, and begin to think about some "returns" for themselves, aside from simply paying constantly for the privilege to make someone else greater.

In short, two can play at the same game. If it is the belief of certain organizations that only they rate tribute, then, too, it can be the belief of the juke box organizations that, perhaps, they should also receive some consideration for what they have done in the past, are doing at present, and will continue to do in the future, to bring greatness to the very people who wish to force the juke box industry to not only help make them great but also pay for the privilege of so doing.

There are, without any doubt, many arguments pro and con, but, at this time, as was done this past year and in preceding years, the leaders of the automatic music industry of America will have to carefully watch the legislative city of Washington to note whatever action is being taken against them so that they can successfully oppose such action for the benefit of all concerned.

There will be meetings of the executive committee created from the committee of fourteen established in Chicago during this past convention. These men are all very much concerned with the bills which already have, and others which will, be introduced into Congress.

These men are planning to fight the great battle of a great industry with all diplomacy, intelligence and fortitude at their command. They should receive the well wishes and the faith of all concerned with this automatic music industry.

NEW ERA GETS UNDER WAY

Entirely New Type Selling and Operating Methods Under Way. Many Believe '48 Will Prove Crucial Year. Harder Work, Lower Overhead, Equitable Commish Basis, Liberal Credit, New Style Machines, Greater Optimism, Faith in Future of Field. All Part of Requirements for Continued Success.

Amid the weeping and wailing of certain of the gloom boys in the coin machine industry, the new era, at long last, gets under way.

It's a better era. It's an era of more efficient methods, of better business bargaining, and closer surveillance over each and every machine the operator has on location.

This is the era which the leaders of the industry looked forward to most eagerly. They realized that when the operators of the nation recovered from their wartime "moneymoon" they would be better operators and that they would, because of this, better help the entire industry to progress.

Everyone connected with the industry realizes that the time had to arrive when the nation's coinmen would adjust loose and inefficient methods to a point where they would again see profitable operation ahead of them.

Some of the nation's automatic music men continued on ahead with 10c play when many jumped away from such action. These men have found that certain locations will accept this price. And these locations have proved profitable.

Others have made arrangements with their location owners to obtain a more equitable division of the present gross intake of their machines. For sometime it has been known thruout the breath and width of the industry that the majority of coinmen could not profitably continue on a 50%/50% commission basis. And many, regardless of competition, went on ahead to make better commission arrangements. These men now find themselves in an enviable position.

Almost everyone in the field has lowered overhead expense. This is absolutely necessary these days of inflated costs. If the average operator continues with the present overhead expense he now endures, he simply will not be able to come out on top, regardless of how expert and professional and astute a businessman he or she is.

There is a great need for a more liberal credit arrangement. Already one music machine manufacturer has recognized this need and has cut payments, as well as extended the time payment period to 26 months, so that the operators can more easily meet weekly notes and also continue on ahead.

New style equipment is being introduced by a great many of the factories for they, too, realize that the operator must have machines which will assure him of better profits, and will also allow him to amortize the cost speedily while, at the same time, practically guaranteeing him a good trade-in allowance.

Hard work, as operator after operator reports, has been the answer to continuance in this industry. Especially on a progressive and profitable basis. There are few, if any, operators who are "starving."

The trade is changing, and changing fast. There are more and more new men entering into the field. This has been encouraged, in view of the fact that some of the old time operators just can't seem to get along without "fabulous" incomes. The new men are willing to continue onward with "just a good living".

In short, then, the new era is already under way, and everywhere in the field there is the day of reckoning at hand. The average coinman knows that he is "counting the days" until he sets up his new business economics and, unless he does so immediately, the counted days won't be very long.

There is a demand among the operators for new equipment "at a price". But, as yet, this does not seem to be the answer, for these very same men who demand "price" are not doing the job they should be doing with whatever equipment they now have on location.

The majority of the operators, jobbers and distributors thruout the nation (and this includes many manufacturers) must change their present methods to meet this "new era".

There is no longer the boom, boom, boom of the "moneymoon" days. There is also no longer the man who will simply shell out his money on "hit or miss" propositions. He wants to be "sure" that he has a "chance" to go ahead with whatever he buys.

There is, therefore, absolutely nothing wrong with the coin machine industry at this present stage. It is still progressing, regardless of the "gloom boys". It is still bound to go ahead. It will be the very first business to recover from recession, and will be the very first industry to show its true courageous and progressive colors.

VITACOUSTIC TO SPONSOR JUKE BOX DESIGN CONTEST

CHICAGO—A sidelight on the recent Coin Machine Industries Convention has blossomed forth in a novel "juke box design contest", Lloyd Garrett, president of Vitacoustic Records Inc., announced this week.

During the convention Garrett lunched with Ernst Spuehler, well known Chicago industrial designer, and several representatives of the juke box industry. Talk turned to juke box design, with Spuehler contending that the industry had given too little weight to the tastes of youth, a major buyer of coin dispensed music.

The outcome of the conversation was that Garrett offered to post prizes for a contest among students of industrial design for the best versions of how the younger generation would like juke boxes to look.

Industry men who were present at the luncheon table are reported to be drawing up specifications and rules. The contest will be officially launched by Vitacoustic in the very near future, with designer Spuehler heading a board of judges which will select the winning designs.

Record Reviews

"Hooray For Love" (2:57)
"The Thousand Islands Song"
(3:01)

JOHNNY MERCER
(Capitol 15028)

● Johnny Mercer with another pair well loaded with possibilities to score in a big way. It's more music from the forthcoming Universal-International flicker "Casbah", with the top deck "Hooray For Love" walking away with the glory. Johnny's nasal tones weave around the title, with adequate backing by the Paul Weston ork coming thru. On the flip for the sugar wordage of "The Thousand Islands Song", Johnny repeats his excellent performance for another cookie egging coin play. Waxing tells of his search for his gal Florence, with the title of the ditty filling in the balance. Stuff is there — the many Mercer fans should go for it.

"Honey, Honey, Honey" (2:56)
"Hollywood House Party Boogie"
(2:40)

HADDA BROOKS
(Modern 157)

● Kicking up a storm in a zillion spots throughout the nation, thrush Hadda Brooks steps out with this platter bound to create havoc with many a phono. "Honey, Honey, Honey" shows chirp Hadda at her best, with the flavorful bee wordage echoing in tight tones that count. Rhythm backing gives the cookie a boost, while the gal's pitch comes thru mellow throughout. On the flip with "Hollywood House Party Boogie", Hadda displays her fine piano talents with this cute number built around the ivory's. Where they go for Hadda — they'll go for this platter — and big at that.

"Let's Be Sweethearts Again"
(3:00)

"Don't Call It Love" (2:57)
GUY LOMBARDO ORCH.
(Decca 24298)

● Brilliant coupling here should have the phonos hopping, and madly at that. Chirp Monica Lewis joins with maestro Guy Lombardo to order up a platter that is bound to attract loads of attention. Monica to wail the sweet and simple wordage of "Let's Be Sweethearts Again" and the fragrant styling of "Don't Call It Love." Top deck spills in light bouncy fashion with the gal's pipes thrilling soft and mellow. Wordage is delightful and get's a rousing sendoff by the top notch Lombardo crew. The flip for more ballad material and some highly fashioned singing by Monica again. The wax should make for exceptionally wonderful filler material — get next to it.

"Hora Staccato" (2:38)
"Sabre Dance" (2:30)
HARRY HORLICK ORCH.
(Crown 157)

● Pair of sides which ops can latch on to are these offered in sparkling manner by the Harry Horlick ork. Titled "Hora Staccato" and "Sabre Dance", the duo should meet with loads of approval in those spots that really appreciate good music. Top deck, always a favorite, flourishes throughout as the maestro utilizes a garden of strings and reeds to set the stage. Flip is currently gaining heavy attention in many a spot, with this new familiar tune coining heavily. Both sides are expertly handled and rate your avid attention.

DISK O' THE WEEK

"I Remember Mama" (3:02)

"Tell Me Why" (2:50)

CLAUDE THORNHILL ORCH.
(Columbia 38075)

CLAUDE THORNHILL

● Words alone can't express the superb manner in which this recording is presented. The brilliant, and nothing short of sensational piano styling of maestro Claude Thornhill, coupled with the stimulating and fervid vocal styling of chirp Fran Warren open the curtain on his disk I labeled "I Remember Mama". It's the familiar "La Cinqantime" with a set of fresh lyrics. Fran of the soul stirring tonsils, really let's go with a mountain of feeling and depth in her rendition. The deck makes you stop, and demands your listening attention. Wax weaves in slow timing with the wordage fresh and vibrant throughout. Add the Thornhill touch and you've got a platter that will set any crowd on their ears. The flip is more of the top deck, with thrush Warren spilling torrid tones that satisfy throughout. Piano open by the maestro starts the deck whirling, with Fran's cupid spot coming in for the balance. "I Remember Mama" will be remembered as a real big coin machine winner — hop to it.

"Helen Polka" (2:21)

"Happy Harmonica" (2:40)

(Dana 2002)

● More stuff cooking up a storm, with the top side here bound to turn into an avalanche of silver for many a phono op. Spilling in gay polka time, the fond tones of this quaint ditty show in top notch fashion to which the many polka addicts can get next to. Bound to be remembered by many a music operator, the wax should garner a slew of coin today, just as it did years ago. On the flip for "Happy Harmonica", more mellow tones spill in effective fashion, with the metro continuing in the happy vein. Top deck should net you an increase in phono play.

"Get A Pin Up Girl" (2:32)

"My Sweetie Went Away" (2:37)

THE HONEYDREAMERS
(Vitacoustic 12)

● Pleasant vocal styling of The Honeydreamers sets the stage on this duo titled "Get A Pin Up Girl" and "My Sweetie Went Away". Combination tones on the topside spill in gay timing with the title of the deck giving off the wax message. Orchestral backing by Bill McRae highlights the side, bringing the needling up in flavor. On the backing with "My Sweetie Went Away", the group combine again for some more charm, with the cute lyrics hypoing the cookie. Deck weaves in gay tempo, while the harmonization offered shows as adequate. Altho the pair won't stop traffic, they nevertheless deserve your ear.

"You're Just An Old Old" (2:47)

"I Never Loved Anyone" (2:58)

FRANCIS WAYNE
(Exclusive 28x)

● The husky throated warble of this gal's pipes weaves a plaintive melody of beautiful musical moments that build up to a jackpot full of coinplay on the phonos. It's a bit of Ellington for Chirp Francis Wayne, with the vocal strains echoing in fine manner. Wax spins in medium slow fashion, with orchestral backing by Neal Hefti and his crew rounding out the side. On the flip for the strains of this rapidly rising item, Francis wails the pleasing wordage to "I Never Loved Anyone". Stuff is effective as it stands, with the gal's treatment rating heavily. Both sides should meet with fair approval, especially so in those quiet spots.

"Soothe Me" (2:40)

"Scratch Sheet" (2:46)

JOHNNY MOORE
(Exclusive 259)

● It's a bell ringer! This latest cookie via Johnny Moore and his Three Blazers shows as one to boost phono play in a zillion race locations. With piper Charley Brown to spill the soothing wordage to "Soothe Me", the deck shines for a ton of coin play. Mellow backing offered here fits the mood of the ditty like a glove, with a spot by guitarist Oscar Moore glowing all the way. On the flip for an instrumental bit, the Blazers combine for some rollicking merriment, with the strains of the wax burning bright. Both sides deserve some extra special attention.

"Stop 21" (2:40)

"Noro In Rumbaland" (2:36)

NORO MORALES
(Seeco 612)

● Oh will the rhumba crowd go wild over this pairing. It's Noro Morales at his best on this Latin cookie labeled "Stop 21" and "Noro In Rumbaland". With the beat of the pair enough to make the hip swivelers revel in their glory, Noro and his gang display sensational rhythmic patterns glowing brilliantly throughout the waxing. Top deck in torrid tempo makes the turntable shake as you play it, while the flip comes back for another roller coaster ride. Music ops that have the spots, should reap harvest.

BYRDE'S EYEVUEW ROUND THE WAX CIRCLE

Byrde Gore

All reports from Washington and the current House Labor Committee hearings indicate a settlement is in the offing in the present recording ban dispute. Recent proposals by committee members to discern between recordings made for home and commercial use have paved the way for recording companies to continue payment of royalties to the American Federation of Musicians. Altho it is uncertain at this point to state whether or not the Copyright Law will come in for revision at this session, it is almost a certainty that many provisions and amendments to the law will take place. The juke box industry has not been confronted with any taxation measures at the present hearings, altho many believe that past legislation is bound to come up again. Recording ban and all, our reviewers had a slew of material to ear this past week.

The National Association of Disc Jockeys, New York Chapter, staged their first annual star studded show at the Metropolitan Opera House this past week, with the only item not on the books was the lack of working microphones. Practically every artist that appeared during the early portion of the show had mike trouble, with the big boner coming when wee voiced Rose Murphy sat down to make some chi-chi. Talent alone was worth a ton of Fort Knox stuff, with old faithful Lionel Hampton really breaking it up. We doubt if the Met had ever taken on such hep antics — the gang really put on a wonderful show.

Young choir boy to keep in mind is a lad that really sells a song and sells it in a big way at that. Currently kicking up a storm via his Crown recording of "Heart & Soul", we feel that the boy is bound to start the bobby-soxers yowling again. His name — Jerry Sellers. Jerry is making the rounds of the Walter Reade Theatre Chain right now and word has it a host of agents are on his tail for some smart night club work in the near future. He's also very conscious of juke box promotion and has gone out of his way to see to it that music operators in particular get the utmost in cooperation. Here's wishing you a ton of mahzel Jerry — we're for you.

Dana Records reports that their click dinking of "Helen Polka" has already reached the 300,000 mark in sales with signs of no let up . . . Bregman Vocco & Conn concentrating on two-word songs. Witness the biz with "Near You", "You Do", "How Soon" and "Helen Polka" . . . Bruno; New York RCA-Victor distrib clean out of "Pianissimo" by Como . . . Beale Street Boys really cut a batch of fresh MGM wax before the ban. Eighteen sides in all . . . Harry Fromkes, Rainbow Records prexy hits the jackpot via his two coin winners, Esy Morales' "Jungle Fantasy" and Jimmy Saunders "If You Care For Me". The former is being hailed as one of the most outstanding platters ever, while Saunders platter looms big . . . Arcadia Records out with eight new Irish sides—tailor made for the tavern stops . . . The Ravens take to the air to play a Washington, D. C. engagement on Feb. 13 when they close midnight in St. Louis on the 12th. . . . Record Reviews

"I Understand" (3:02)"East Coast Blues" (3:00)*HARRY JAMES O.
(Columbia 38059)

● The charm and simplicity of this one is bound to set the stage for a repeat landslide of coinplay in boxes from Maine to California. The Harry James gang and the oldie "I Understand" step out, with the refrain spelling moola from the first note. Balladeer Buddy DiVito picks 'em up all the way and comes thru for a smash rendition of this stylish piece. Throw in a bit of the maestro's horn and you've got a deck they'll grab. The flip and "East Coast Blues", with the James boys jamming throughout. Trombone solo here spots the cookie, with some heavy trumpet tones kicking off the beat in the background. We go for the topside and "I Understand."

"The Best Things In Life Are Free" (2:52)"I Woke Up With A Teardrop In My Eye" (3:01)*THE INK SPOTS
(Decca 24327)

● High soprano tones of Billy Kenny and the Ink Spots and the strains of "The Best Things In Life Are Free" spill here with the musical styling showing as effective all the way. Waxing in the slow mood follows the usual format of the combo, with Kenny's spot hogging the lime. On the flip with more melancholy music, the group offer the soft dulcet wordage to "I Woke Up With A Teardrop In My Eye." Cookie is a weeper and weaves in slow timing. Both sides should fit your machine in those spots that go for the group.

"Someone Cares" (3:06)"Matinee" (3:04)*VAUGHN MONROE ORCH.
(Victor 20-2671)

● More mellow music by one of the nations hottest band attractions with maestro Vaughn Monroe himself to spill the sugar coated flowing wordage to "Someone Cares" and "Matinee". Top deck finds Vaughn and Moon Maids cooing the soft stuff here, with the orchestral flavor shining throughout. You'll go for the setting here, bound to attract the cuddle crowd and a slew of coinplay with it. On the flip with "Matinee", Vaughn goes solo to give with some heavy stuff. Beat is pronounced here with title and a gal offering the wax message. Both sides should come in for some heavy coin play — whirl 'em.

"A String of Pearls" (3:01)"Jersey Bounce" (2:57)*BENNY GOODMAN ORCH.

● Pair of re-issue sides that ops have been looking for turn up here as wax that can take hold and really boom. It's the oldie "A String of Pearls" and "Jersey Bounce" by the king of 'em all, maestro Benny Goodman. Top deck with that familiar beat should mean buffalo to a load of ops, while the flip itself appears just as cute. The pair stand heavily in the minds of phono fans throughout the nation, and since they are some of the best Goodman ever played, they should wear white on your machines.

SLEEPER
OF THE WEEK"Teresa" (3:01)*"An Old Sombrero" (3:04)*VIC DAMONE
(Mercury 5092)

VIC DAMONE

● Star studded platter by balladeer Vic Damone and another potential coin winner for music ops throughout the land. The subtle yet gay tones of "Teresa" shine brilliantly, with piper Vic displaying his powerful and penetrating vocal styling. Waxing is light and full of fragrant spots to which Vic blends beautifully. Orchestral support oh so full of flowing strings by orkster Glen Osser hypo's the disk immensely. It's another step forward for the young crooner, with a piece of ballad material bound to wear white in your machines. The flip is a bit of Latin, with Vic coming thru once again on "An Old Sombrero". You'll go for the flippant melody offered, plus Vic's highly striking rendition. Maestro Glen Osser glows emphatically here, building the platter for a sack full of coin. Both sides for a prize package of wax.

"Serenade of the Bells" (3:04)"Some Hearts Sing" (3:17)*DICK HAYMES

● Silver gilded pipes of balladeer Dick Haymes and a pair that rate heavily for a spot on the phonos. Top side, a culler if there ever was one, is currently riding hot on practically every machine in the nation. Dick's rendition of "Serenade of the Bells" shows the piper in fine tone throughout, with backing by the Vic Young ork giving the deck an added boot. You'll go for his stylish piping on this side — add to that the Hayme's following and you've got a hunk of wax that'll go like sixty. It's a re-issue on the backing, with Dick and maestro Earle Hagen joining to offer "Some Hearts Sing". Music ops may remember this side which went years ago. Ably suited for the romancers, Dick's tonsils show pure all the way. Top deck for the coin.

"The Thousand Islands Song" (2:59)"I'm Living A Lie" (3:06)*LOUIS PRIMA ORCH.
(Victor 20-2619)

● Couple of sides to which ops might latch on to are these offered by orkster Louis Prima, with the tones of "The Thousand Islands Song" and "I'm Living A Lie" echoing thru. Top deck features chirp Cathy Allen to purr the cute wordage, with maestro Louis joining her for a chorus. Flip shows Louis all the way to wail the cute lyrics offered here. The maestro does the cookie up royal as he pipes in nasal tones. Both sides seem well loaded with possibilities to score and deserve that extra spot in your machine.

"My Cousin Louella" (3:00)"On Green Dolphin Street" (2:57)*JACK CARROLL
(Vitacoustic 13)

● The teeming tones of balladeer Jack Carroll and light airy patterns of "My Cousin Louella" combine to ring out for a barrel full of buffalo for music ops throughout the nation. Jack's heavy pipes blend beautifully behind some magic music provided by the Bill McRae ork. Balance of the ditty is carried in grade A fashion with Jack's vocal styling grabbing off the glory throughout. On the flip with the title song from the MGM flicker of the same name, Jack pitches pipes to some sugar coated music, with the lyrics of the ditty beaming thru in the same vein. Stuff should go exceptionally well with the moon in june crowd — give it an earring.

"Now Is The Hour" (2:57)"Nina Nina" (2:59)*RAY BLOCH ORCH.
(Signature 15178)

● Number one ditty across the pond, and rapidly rising as a featured item on juke boxes throughout this nation is offered here by maestro Ray Bloch and his gang. Utilizing a mandolin and a load of strings, Ray shows with a vocal combo to spill the fragrant wordage. Stuff is suited for those light spots, with the many fans the maestro has bound to latch on to this bit. On the flip with "Nina Nina", choir boy Alan Dale to the fore for the quaint lyrics shown here. Spilling the ditty in faint Italian novelty styling, Alan's wonderful vocal tones equal the splendor of the orchestral support.

"For Every Man There's A Woman" (3:01)"Beyond The Sea" (2:05)*BENNY GOODMAN ORCH.
(Capitol 15130)

● Pair of sides which ops might do well with are these offered by maestro Benny Goodman. Titled "For Every Man There's A Woman" and "Beyond The Sea", Benny and the crew switch style here to show with a platter hinging on the highbrow. Top deck features chirp Peggy Lee, with the metro of the song spilling in slow tempo throughout. Wordage is cute and should get an extra dose of spice once its flicker tie, "Casbah" breaks. On the backing with an instrumental piece, Benny and crew pull the switch to come thru with a load of sweet and strings. It's dream music, the sort that the starry eyed kids love. Grab

Apollo Records Disclose Single Wax Pacts

NEW YORK—Apollo Records, Inc., this city, disclosed that the plattery had inked several recording contracts with name headliners just prior to the recording ban.

Among those who signed recording contracts was Morey Amsterdam, comedy star of stage and radio. Amsterdam signed a one-time pact the plattery announced, with four comedy sides to be released this year.

The Apollo diskery signed several contracts similar to Amsterdam's, arranging single sessions with new artists in an effort to expand and give variety to the waxery's backlog. Others included Bob Hannon, the Jesters, Johnny Stone and Roy Ross' orchestra.

Vocalist Muriel Adams was signed to a longer term contract; the Four Blues also recorded five sides, and also prior to the ban, Cy Walter waxed an Apollo album of piano solos.

Irving Katz, sales promotion manager for the plattery also announced that the firms results and display of cooperation was received by music operators in jubilant manner at the recent Coin Machine Convention in Chicago.

MAJESTIC No. 1190

● King of 'em all and there's no doubt about it. Eddy Howard with another clickeroo for the nations phono ops; this time with this delicate piece tagged "True". Eddy's delicate tonsils spill the plush wordage around a backdrop of elegant music by the band boys. The slow metro of the cookie labels it must material and sets the stage for loads of howling by the zillions of Howard fans. Especially suited for the quiet spots where the star gazers gather, the deck is easily taken to by the listener and dance crowd alike. On the flip for the highly touted "Now Is The Hour", it's Eddy wailing some more soft stuff ably backed by a vocal combo. Ops should remember the familiar note this side rings — given an earring on this Howard rendition and they are sure to remember it as a coin culler. Both sides for some heavy Howard coin — we're sure you'll agree.

RECORD REVIEWS*BULLSEYE of the WEEK*"A Woman Has Wrecked*Many A Good Man"*"A Lonely Heart Knows"ERNEST TUBB(Decca 46113)

● The phonos won't stop playing with this one! It's Ernest Tubb and another bell ringer for music operators with this pair titled "A Woman Has Wrecked Many A Good Man" and "A Lonely Heart Knows". Top deck is offered in restrained manner with the warbling offered in first rate fashion. Flip is a bit of blue material ably suited for the quiet spots. Tubb grabs the spotlight on both sides to give music ops another coin winner. String backing fits the metro of the pair like a glove — you'll go for it.

"Easy To Please""Tomorrow's Just Another Day To Cry"ERNIE LEE(Victor 20-2645)

● Pair of sides to which ops may take a liking to are these offered in pleasant styling by the capable Ernie Lee and His Midwesterners. Top deck, grabbing off a load of coin in the boxes should meet with fair approval. Flip is a romantic bit with loads of fiddles weaving around it. Both sides might make attractive filler material — they deserve your listening ear.

"Don't Flirt With Me""Rock In The Ocean"HANK THOMPSON(Capitol 40085)

● Popular styling of Hank Thompson sets the stage for the wax story on these two sides. Titled "Don't Flirt With Me" and "Rock In The Ocean", Hank steps to the fore to offer the cute wordage. Top deck weaves around the title with adequate ork backing. Flip is offered in waltz tempo with the vocal spotlight shining on Hank. The rapidly growing clan of Thompson fans should keep the phonos buzzing.

"I Guess I've Been Dreaming Again""Steel Guitar Rag"SPADE COOLEY(Columbia 38054)

● Combination of Spade Cooley and Tex Williams on the top deck of this duo add up to a gallon full of phono play for this side titled "I Guess I've Been Dreaming Again". Mellow warbling coupled with some mighty fine orchestral work sets the disk off, with the lyrics offered flourishing throughout. On the backing with this favorite folk instrumental piece, the Cooley crew do the wax up bright for the tones of "Steel Guitar Rag." They'll call for this in droves — hop to it.

Rollin' 'Round Randolph

Now that the excitement of the CMI convention is over, we can settle down to roaming the bistro belt, find out what's new along the gay Rialto, and report the happenings of Randolph Street's music biz . . . Lots of the music boys are still talking about that swell party Aristocrat Records gave during the CMI convention. Reports we've been hearing claim it was quite a shindig with everyone having a wonderful time and staying over till the wee hours of the morning so as not to miss any of the fun. Among those present were leading disc jockeys, record distributors, record dealers, and operators from all over the states. Entertainment was supplied by several of Aristocrat's recording stars, Hy Shumway, disc jock from station WJOB, Hammond, Ind., M-C'd the show.

Paul Cunningham of Broadway Music arrived in town last week with his current tune, "Just About This Time Last Night", which looks like it's skedded to be one of the hits of the season. Claude Thornhill, John Laurenz, Louis Prima and Yvette have all cut the tune. Paul was beaming over the plugs he has been receiving in this area . . . Lawrence Welk, renewed a lot of old acquaintances at the CMI show, visiting with the Decca sales staff and with many of the record distributors and juke box ops . . . Skip Farrell is reported to have cut several excellent discs for Tower Records which will be released very soon . . . George Olsen's Monday night program from the Edgewater Beach Hotel is being so well received that there is a lot of talk of a sponsor tieup . . . but soon.

Mercury Records announces they will release an album of Gay '90s tunes sometime in March. The discs will feature Benay Venuta, backed by Armand Deutsch, her husband . . . We hear that Universal Records purchased a number of masters by Gene Austin, with the Les Paul Trio on the flip side . . . Cathy O'Mara, former chirp with the Milt Herth Trio, has now joined the Lawrence Welk ork to replace Joan Mowery, while Pete Nelson goes in for Booby Beers . . . The Three Suns, now touring the mid-western circuit, will open January 30th in Springfield, Ill. at the Orchid Lounge . . . Al Kavelin of Bourne Music, preparing to leave for New York where he will take over professional manager duties for the firm in the Big Town.

Music men around town all agree that Skitch Henderson's Capitol recording of "I'm A Comin' A Courtin' Corabelle" will be right up there. Skitch is now holding forth at the Stevens Hotel and doing a bang up job . . . Over at the Blackhawk, Art Kassel gets lots of requests for "Oh What I Know About You", his own composition which he recently cut for Mercury . . . Sam DiCara, press man for The Harmonicats, wires us from Minneapolis, Minn. to say that the "Cats" new recording, "I'm Looking Over A Four Leaf Clover" is proving sensational up around that territory and it looks as tho the boys have another b-i-g hit . . . And that reminds me, watch the new Frankie Lane number "Shine", this was picked as the "Disk O' The Week" in the January issue of The Cash Box. Already ops are pegging it right up there with the top ten.

NEW YORK STATE BOTTLERS MEET

Call For Concerted Action To Combat Unfavorable Publicity. Urge Alertness To Prevent License Tax

NEW YORK—450 delegates representing the same number of carbonated beverage companies met this past week at the Hotel New Yorker, opening their twenty-sixth annual convention of the New York State Bottlers of Carbonated Beverages, Inc.

A. B. Hatcher of the Top Rock Bottling Company, Charleston W. Va., a member of the executive board of the American Bottlers of Carbonated Beverages, called for "concerted action to combat unfavorable publicity on the industry" and also recommended a campaign for cancellation of all present license taxes on soft drinks.

"Mistaken statements, largely due to ignorance, must be challenged and offset," Mr. Hatcher said. Among these, he noted, were contentions that soft drinks were harmful in the diets of growing children. He urged that the bottlers be on the alert to oppose the introduction of soft drink license taxes in states where there is no such tax. New York is one of the states that hasn't this type of tax as yet.

It was urged that the bottlers take aggressive action against "mistaken statements" about the carbonated beverage industry. It was also pointed out that it was necessary to further sharpen sales campaigns previously intensified by the industry's sharp swing back to pre-war competitive conditions.

The subject of overcharging abuses by retailers was a leading topic of discussion among the delegates. Altho the wholesale prices on eight-ounce lines have not been raised, it was stated, many dealers persist in charging two or three cents more than the price considered fair by bottlers. While this practice doesn't affect the operators of drink vendors, it was pointed out that this practice by retailers might create a feeling in the minds of some legislators that the industry could carry a one or two cent tax.

Philip Hellinckx of Northern Coca-Cola Bottling Company, Massena, N. Y., outgoing president of the organization, stated that the gross value of the industry's business in New York State will increase 30 per cent over last year's total of $85,000,000. Sales are the key problem he added, since there are no lack of supplies or obstacles to full production.

George F. Weppner of the Pepsi-Cola Buffalo Bottling Corporation, first vice president of the organization, was elected president for the forthcoming year.

Location Tests Show Six Cent Bar Sold Better Than Five Cent Bar In Chicago

CHICAGO—Bert Reil, sales manager of the Vendall Service Corporation, this city, reports that location tests made by his company indicate that the popular idea that candy bars and similar items cannot be sold for more than a nickel thru vending machines was shaken by the results.

Choosing good locations, but not places where money is flush, Vendall set up adjacent machines, one selling the most popular names in bars, chocolate, nut rolls, etc., and the other, less popular but well-known first-rate items. The leader brands were priced at five cents and the excellent quality, but less well-known, went for six cents.

After a period about two and a half months, the company was both pleased and surprised to find that the volume in the six-cent bar has consistently been higher than sales of the five-cent bar, indicating that people will pay an extra coin without protest.

Reil doesn't wish to jump to any conclusions from this test but states "No

Ice Cream Vendor Clicks At Show

Walter Gummshheimer, Universal Distributing Company, national sales representative for Hilco's Ice Cream Bar vendor and Henry Hildebrandt, manufacturer of the machine.

ST. LOUIS, MO. — Walter Gummshheimer, Universal Distributing Co., this city, reports that the display of Hilco's Ice Cream Bar vendor at the CMI convention in Chicago, was extremely successful, and that he lined up many distributors thruout the country.

The ice cream vendor was one of the feature attractions at the show, particularly as it vended a product with national prominence, a Borden's "Frost-tick" chocolate covered ice cream bar on a stick.

Gummshheimer enthusiastically stated "I was particularly happy over the interest shown by both the operator and the distributor. "During the week of the convention we were able to assign territories to various distributors thruout the country. While there are still a few territories available, the major portion of the country has been taken care of. The distributors are nationally known and are the foremost organizations in their territories. We shall soon be in a position to inform the trade of their identification, and shall be able to start deliveries when we announce their names."

Universal Distributing Company is national sales representatives for the Ice Cream Bar vendor.

New Type Salted-In-Shell Peanut Vendor Attracts Aut. Merchants

CHICAGO—Neil Demling of Hawkeye Novelty Co., Des Moines, Ia., clicked big at the past CMI convention with the new "Salted-In-The-Shell" peanut vendor which he displayed.

Thruout the entire exhibit floors automatic merchants, their wives, and friends, were noticed going about cracking open these luscious peanuts, and eagerly as well as hungrily devouring them.

They came back again and again and, without fail, all started to inquire into the cost, quantity, exclusive territorial franchise and operating rights to this new type vendor which Demling was showing.

"There is no doubt", one noted automatic merchant stated, "that Demling has produced one of the big hits of the 15th annual convention."

"A long time ago", he continued, "someone decided to put pistachio nuts into a small bulk vendor and the success which was attained is past history."

"Now we believe", he said, "that Demling has brought a new and better selling force to the field, and that these machines, featuring the 'salted-in-the-shell' peanuts, will appear everywhere in the country."

Demling himself stated, "I believe that we were the busiest people displaying an automatic merchandiser at the CMI's 15th annual convention. Operators from everywhere in the nation came to discuss immediate delivery. There is no longer any doubt", he said, "of the success created by our hot peanut vendor and the fact that this is just what the public wants."

He also stated, "For sometime now 'salted-in-the-shell' peanuts have met with tremendous approval wherever they have been sold. This time we are bringing them right to the public's doorstep and there is no doubt that this is the sort of merchandising which is most appreciated."

"There are going to be many thousands of our hot peanut vendors appearing everywhere in the country and, if peanut orders taken at this show are any indication, we have hit on the product which everyone in the automatic merchandising industry wanted."

Hood Praised For Masterful Show At CMI Banquet

RICHARD W. HOOD

CHICAGO—Coinmen from all parts of the country are still talking about the great time they had at the CMI Banquet held Thursday, January 22 at the Stevens Hotel.

Eons of praise have been heaped on R. W. (Dick) Hood, of H. C. Evans & Company, chairman of the entertainment committee, for the great show presented on the stage. For years Hood has given the coin machine industry shows of the highest calibre, but this year, he outdid himself, and the 1,500 coinmen and their wives and friends who were present were enthusiastic in their praise, calling him the "master showman" of the coin machine industry.

The show went on immediately after the dinner, and act after act brought down the house. Singers, dancers, novelty acts, etc., put on their stuff, with the acrobatic act reaping the biggest hand.

Damon Runyon Memorial Book Available To Coin Trade

CHICAGO — James T. Mangan, director of the Public Relations Bureau, CMI, announced this week that the big 112 page Damon Runyon Memorial Book will be sent free by Coin Machine Industries to anyone requesting a copy. Every coinman who registered at the Convention received this book. It gives a comprehensive outline of the Cancer Fund Drive and faithfully records all of the special events, dinners and parties held by coin machine associations, state and city groups, in behalf of the Fund. A complete list of individual donors and amounts donated is listed.

"We want the world to know of the great job coin machine people did" stated Mangan "and are doing in behalf of cancer research. I believe that the Damon Runyon Memorial Book should be shown to every political, civic, social and science leader in every city and town of the United States. We were forced to close the list a few days before the Show in order to have the book printed on time. Since the Show additional donations to our Fund have exceeded $50,000. A list of these supplementary donations will be issued soon.

"Supply of this book is limited", continued Mangan. If any coinman doesn't need more than one free copy, we would appreciate it if they wouldn't ask for more. If however, it can be used judiciously and effectively, our Public Relations Bureau will send a few additional free of charge."

Koren And Cohen To Hold Aireon Phono Showing In Chi And N. Y., February 5 & 6

LOU KOREN

CHICAGO—One of the news highlights emanating from the CMI convention was the announcement by Lou Koren of the organization of the Biltmore Distributing Company, which will be the distributing agent for the new 1948 Aireon line of phonographs and accessory equipment.

Vic Comforet will be in active charge of Biltmore, serving in the same capacity as he did formerly with the sister company, Distributing Company of Illinois. Koren also announced the appointment of Harry LeVine as manager of the Biltmore organization. LeVine is a familiar figure in the coin machine industry, having formerly been connected with the Daval Manufacturing Company, and serving with the Southern Amusement Company, covering the southern states.

In order to bring the music operator close to the new Aireon line, and to explain the new finance plan, Biltmore Distributing Company has set February 5 and 6, Thursday and Friday, as the official showing in this city. "We will not only show them the finest automatic phonograph ever built" states Koren "but will sell it at a price that will pay a profit to the operators the first week it is on location. Our showing at the Biltmore headquarters, 1233 West Chicago Avenue, will be a big show — with lots to see and hear."

NAT COHN

NEW YORK—Nat Cohn, Modern Music Sales Corporation, announced that his firm will hold a two day showing of the new Aireon phonograph and accessory equipment at his showrooms on February 5 and 6, Thursday and Friday.

Cohn, who announced only a few weeks ago his appointment as distributing agent for the Aireon line, reports he is now ready to show the equipment to all the New York music operators at his headquarters.

"The 'Coronet Model 400' phonograph caused a sensation when displayed at the CMI show in Chicago" stated Cohn, "and we will now provide the operators locally who couldn't get to Chicago the opportunity to see the equipment on our showroom floors. In addition, we want to explain in detail the $4 per week payment plan devised by the Aireon Manufacturing Corporation for the benefit of music operators."

One of the foremost distributors of automatic phonographs since the early days, Cohn has a legion of friends. "We expect every phonograph operator in the city to visit us during February 5 and 6, and when they see the new Aireon phono, and hear the wonderful finance plan arranged for them, I know they will be as enthusiastic over the plan as I am" stated Cohn.

Cohn also announced that Tony (Rex) DiRenzo has been appointed Sales Manager of the coin machine division of Modern Music Sales Company. Tony is well known locally having recently been manager of Manhattan Phonograph Company, Aireon distributors here.

Reports Quantity Orders For "Camera Chief"

EDDIE HANSON

CHICAGO—Eddie Hanson, sales manager of Groetchen Tool & Manufacturing Company, this city, reports that their new "1c Camera Chief" attracted considerable attention at the CMI convention, and both distributors and operators placed substantial orders before leaving for home.

Leaving all the details for a few weeks, Hanson left immediately after the show with the new Mrs. Hanson for a honeymoon. "When I return to the office" stated Ed. "I expect the factory to be rolling full blast, and deliveries being rushed to the distributors."

WILLIAMS CURBS SALES RUMORS

Emphatically Denies He Has Sold or Contemplates Selling His Firm

HARRY WILLIAMS

CHICAGO—Harry Williams of Williams Manufacturing Co., this city, in a very strong effort to halt rumor-mongering and gossip regarding the "sale" of his firm, reported this past week, for immediate press release, that he most definitely had not sold his firm, nor did he contemplate any such sale.

"In fact", Williams stated, "I intend to remain in this business the rest of my life."

Rumors which have been flying about in the trade should be most definitely halted by this emphatic statement on Williams' part, it is believed by all leaders here.

What Williams did announce, which is of news to the trade, is that Sam Stern of the Scott-Crosse Company, Philadelphia, Pa. will become vice-president of Williams Manufacturing Co. and will take an active role in the firm's future business procedure.

It is reported here that any further unverified rumors regarding any sales or negotiation for sale of the Williams Manufacturing Company should be instantly referred to Harry Williams, president of this well known organization.

It is also sincerely hoped by many leaders in the coin machine industry here that this quick and emphatic action on Harry Williams part, will forever help squelch unverified and vicious rumors which circulate without any substantiation.

Talk Drink Dispenser

CHICAGO—Bill Gersh of The Cash Box listening in while Ben Regan of Automatic Canteen and Tom Callaghan of Bally Manufacturing Co. discuss the Lion Beverage Dispenser which received such an outstanding reception from the nation's coin machine men at the CMI convention.

According to Regan, Automatic Canteen are going ahead at a rapid pace with placement of beverage dispensers and, he also said, the interest in these automatic merchandisers is growing greater each day.

Callaghan surprised Regan with information regarding the reception which the Lion Mfg. Corp. unit has received from operators all over the nation and also advised that the firm are working ahead at top speed to arrange for speedy deliveries as soon as is possible.

Jammed Booths Answer To Chicon's Popularity

CHICAGO — Sam Wolberg of Chicago Coin Machine Mfg. Co. and Bill Gersh of The Cash Box looking at the huge crowds which jammed the Chicago Coin booths every day of the CMI convention attesting to the success which the nation's pinball operators have been enjoying with this firm's games.

From far and wide, thruout the nation, pinball operators called at these booths to thank Sam Wolberg and Sam Gensburg of the Chicon firm for the fine profit producing games they had built for them all during the year and placed large volume orders for the firm's newest, "Bermuda".

USE U. S. BOOTH TO TALK THINGS OVER

CHICAGO — Sam Kressburg of the Drink-O-Mat Corp. and Gordon B. Mills of Mills Industries, Inc., sit down for a rest at the CMI convention and talk things over regarding the future of the drink dispenser business.

From all reports, both these automatic merchandise machine leaders agreed that the drink vending field is just first beginning to "feel its oats" and that tremendous expansion is at last getting under way to acquaint everyone thruout the nation with the marvelous efficiency and service which beverage dispensers can render the public.

J. BREIDT

NEWARK, N. J.—Jack Breidt, president of U-Need-A Vendors, Inc., this city, was one of the happiest men on the Eastern seaboard this past week when, after tallying the volume of orders which the firm's sales force had taken at the CMI convention, he found that they had surpassed any and all previous records for any convention in which they had shown their cigarette merchandisers.

Breidt attributes the fine response from the nation's automatic merchants to the fact that the new electric U-Need-A cigarette vendor has won complete confidence, and that all who have seen it have been impressed with its easy servicing features, its sturdy construction and its marvelous appeal to the public.

Breidt stated, "I believe that our new cigarette merchandisers will lead the parade in '48."

THRU THE COIN CHUTE

CHICAGO CHATTER

The show is over, but the memory lingers on. Dropping around, visiting the many coinmen hereabouts, all we hear is continued conversation about the convention. Much of the talk centers on the effects of the show. The good that it accomplished. The pros and cons about holding a convention next year. There seems to be a feeling that the convention should be changed to meet modern conditions. However, the arguments will continue and, there is no doubt, when '49 convention time rolls around, coinmen will once again get excited.

A grand change has taken place over at Coven Distributing, with quite a bit of remodeling going on. The offices, which were formerly located up front, have now been converted into very spacious and attractive showrooms to display the new line of Radio and Television sets Ben Coven is now distributing. The offices are now located in the rear of the showrooms. Ben and his sales manager, Dave Orman, are very busy completing these arrangements and very proud of their new set-up . . . "Bally" Sally Goldstein of Coven Distrib. is one gal that's way ahead of the times, not only is Sally wearing the 'New Look' but also has what she calls the 'New Voice' or, "the 'New Look' over the telephone." When you call Coven's and hear Sally answer you'll know what we mean.

We hear that CMI, now located at 134 No. LaSalle St., plan to consolidate their offices into one group on the same floor. Public Relations Bureau will move from the 22nd floor and CMI will move from the 5th floor, both will now be located on the 3rd floor making it easier and more convenient for all . . . Gwen Desplenter of the Public Relations Bureau gave us a big surprise this past week with her announcement that Friday would be her last day with CMI. Gwen plans to go out to California for several months relaxation and enjoyment. After that her plans are rather indefinite. We hope that Gwen will find her way back to Chicago and CMI's Public Relations work again after her stay on the West Coast. She's a grand gal and we know that everyone in the industry will miss her . . . From what we hear that was quite a party Empire Coin threw in their suite at the Sherman during the show. Lots of the boys are still talking about it.

Dropped in for a nice visit with Lindy Force of AMI. We hear that production of their new 40 selection wall box is in full swing with deliveries increasing daily, which is very good news to the AMI distributors. Lindy also informed us that they have added playmeters to all their phonos which makes it easy to know which records are getting the most play. Lindy went on to tell us about their new distributor, R. E. Padfield of Omaha, Neb., whose territory will include Nebraska and western Iowa. Lindy and John Haddock, prexy of AMI, plan to take off to attend the Annual Meeting of Michigan Phono ops which will be held in Detroit this week . . . Billy DeSelm and the boys over at United Mfg. Co. are settling down and getting a bit of shuteye after a very hectic week of toasting and dining their visiting distributors. Billy says if he doesn't get some sleep soon those bags under his eyes will be getting too heavy for him to carry around.

Gene Steffens over at Permo, Inc., has been getting lots of orders from music ops and distributors all over the country since the show . . . Al Stern of World Wide is shipping plenty of games to his many customers who visited with him at his booth during the convention. Al looks for a sharp upswing in 1948 . . . Al Sebring of Bell Products very pleased over the reception given his coin changer. Al took a lot of orders and is getting his factory going to fill the demand . . . Lee Jones of P & S Machine Co. entertained very lavishly in his suite and sold lots of the new "Kicker Tom Tom". It's quite a fascinating game, especially since the novel kicker was added . . . We hear that Vince Murphy may leave Globe Distributing offices soon and move eastward to go into the coin counting and sorting distributorship on his own.

Enjoyed a very nice visit with Herb Jones and "Dapper" Tom Callaghan of Bally Mfg. Co. The boys tell me that they really took plenty of orders on the entire Bally line, with a terrific demand shown for the new Bally "Melody". . . Most of the action at the recent coin show was centered around the roll down games with practically all manufacturers displaying their latest creations in this category. Among the many coinmen who were displaying roll downs was George Ponser looking very happy over the number of orders he received on his new "Pro-Score" . . . Lots and lots of swell comment on the very attractive display put on by Wico Corp. with the boys feeling very pleased over the results of their efforts. Harry Wiczer tells us that the show was a big success for them.

Rumors-rumors-rumors. The coinbiz reminds one of the good old days in Uncle Sam's Army. Seems the latest rumor has Harry Williams selling his plant and retiring to a little farm in California. But a visit with Harry reveals that this news is far from correct. Harry plans on remaining in the coinbiz the rest of his days and doesn't contemplate selling any part of his business. That should squelch those rumors. Harry also informs us that he expects Sam Stern to join his organization in the very near future to assume an active role in the firm . . . Eddie Hansen of Groetchen Tool called to tell us about the terrific response to the firm's new "Camera Chief," featuring three-dimensional pictures . . . Gordon Sutton of Illinois Simplex must have been so deeply touched by the farewell parties given him, besides hearing about the record snowfall in New York, that he has decided to call off his transfer to New York and will remain among us in the windy city.

From what we hear Genco's new "Triple Action" pin game is rapidly becoming the talk of the town according to Meyer Gensburg of the Genco Mfg. Co. The factory is doing a bit of overtime work in an endeavor to catch up with the demand . . . Just spoke with J. R. Bacon of O. D. Jennings & Co. who informs us that they are making some very large deliveries in their new line to fill the many orders taken at the show. He also tells us that their "open house" at the plant during the convention was a wonderful success . . . Talked with Art Weinand over at Rock-Ola who tells us that plans have been completed on the production of their new wireless wall box. Art advises us that delivery dates will be announced very soon . . . A. C. Amann, vice prexy of Illinois Lock, off on a fast business trip this week.

EASTERN FLASHES

Yep, they're all back again. All the guys and gals who went out to attend the 15th annual convention of Coin Machine Industries, Inc. are back in town and, believe it or not, each and everyone has a different version regarding what did (and some say what did not) make this show the biggest hit of all time. Regardless of what they think, they all know that they enjoyed themselves, and had a great time and that, my kind friends, is what conventions are really for. Like someone said, if they just ran the conventions and told the ops that it was "for a good time only" maybe the boys would come out in larger and larger numbers and be happier to be there. One of the guys here claims, "There's too much of a business atmosphere about the shows which actually scares lots of the ops away". If that's so, someone just ain't publicizing the shows the right way. The convention is a good time for all concerned and, we believe, that the coming 1949—16th annual show will more than prove this statement.

Lots of the guys around this town are suddenly waking up. They, at last, realize that the ops aren't just going to be "pushed around" anymore (which is the famous statement all the ops like to use) and are beginning to work with the boys much closer than they ever did before . . . Sure was sorry not to see Bert Lane at the big show. Bert took the accidental death of his dad very, very hard. We do hope, Bert, that you're feeling better and that you're back on the job again. We met your dad many times in the years gone by and found him one of the greatest and grandest people we've ever known . . . Harry Pearl, Dave Stern and Tom Burke, all back from the big show, and all hepped up, and talking about the new Rock-Ola Magic-Glo phono. Dave, especially, is all pepped up over this phono. And this guy, Dave Stern, is, believe me, one of the really swell guys in the coinbiz, having done lots and lots of good things for lots and lots of coin machine people and never (never that I know of) having taken any credit for it.

Eddie Corrison is one guy I like. By the way, did you and you know that at one time Eddie was one of the outstanding refs for bigtime basketball? Well, don't let that avoirdupois fool youse guys. Eddie can still throw those fists around pretty good and knows where the hell he's throwing 'em, too . . . Here's a guy there should be more of in the coin machine industry — Irv Kaye. Irv is one grand optimist and one guy whom even the location owners can't hold down. Irv reports that his collections are still up to par and, he tells me, they'll go above par very soon for Irv has ideas. And, take it from me, they're grand and good angles . . . Say, Sid Levine and Al Denver were certainly tremendously honored at this past convention when they heard leading music association people from all over these United States tell them what great guys they really are. And Al stands to the right hand of George A. Miller of Oakland while Sid Levine is the national glamour boy when it comes to attornies. Both these guys should get a rising vote of thanks from all of you and you and you in the automatic music machine industry of New York City.

By the way, one of our boys is making good as a "manufacturer" in Chicago. None other than George Ponser who did a grand job at the convention . . . And that reminds me that Jack Rubin and Jack Semel of Esso also did alright by themselves. I hear that Jack Rubin has become one of our city's bigger men in real estate . . . Got a kick out of Teddy Blatt who walked thru the convention, phlegmatic and calm as you please, looking here and there and everywhere and telling me, "What — this is a convention?" . . . And that reminds me that Willie (Little Napoleon) Blatt who is now in Miami (former Brooklyn native) bumped right smack into Willie Levy. Between themselves they almost were ruined in that first Gin game. But, take it from me, if you want to really talk to a "shrewdy", talk to Willie. He's ahead of the 8-Ball and knows whereof he speaks.

Say that Barnet (Shugy) Sugerman did everything but turn the convention upside down. This is one guy who thinks ahead. The only trouble with Shugy is that he's so gol-darned big hearted that everyone takes the shirt right off his back. And Abe Green didn't show up at the convention at all. But, Jack Mitnick was there, and Jack worked like a beaver — which seems to me, after all the years I've known Jack, a more or less natural trait for him . . . I bumped right into Sam Bushnell one day and what the hell do you think he was doing? Making a Wilcox-Gay Recordio record for himself to send home to his wife, "just to prove I was at the convention" he claimed. Anyway, that's what he claimed.

I'm happy to hear that Nat Cohn, who is clicking, but big, with the new Aireon phone at $495 took on Tony Rex as his salesmanager. Tony is one swell guy and, I feel, that between Tony and Nat they're simply going to establish sales record after sales record on this new phono. By the way, if you're around town on February 5 or 6 — better drop into Nat's headquarters and see this new phono and also meet all the big stars of the recording world who will also be attending . . . The Berman had himself a bandaged hand at the Show. . . . Charley Aronson and Bill Alberg suddenly showed up at the convention and not only got a kick seeing their name first in that Cancer Booklet, but, also were absolutely thrilled to little pieces because Dick Hood of H. C. Evans & Co. put out that great game.

And my good friend, Max Levine, did one tremendous job at this convention. There's a guy who, in his quiet way, does a great job and just sorta rolls along . . . And Bill Rabkin of International Mutoscope also brought back a grand game which should catch on big wherever there is anyone to play games. By the way, don't they play games while the television receiver is on? If they do, look up Bill, he's got somethin' for you . . . H. F. (Denny) Dennison was one of the busiest guys at the show with his combination television-juke box clicking big with the ops and Louis Forman of Merchants Factors was even happier, because Louis believes in Denny and Denny believes in Louie and between them they'll finance this job to a faretheewell . . . Nor did Al Bloom have too much to worry about. Al clicked with his showing of his Tele-juke at the Hotel Morrison and to this very minute hasn't finished answering all the inquiries of the people who came up to see him.

Mike Munves, in his quiet way (aside from bumping some guys around) did a great and grand job at this past convention. Joe Munves, one guy who doesn't say too much, but, who knows what it's all about, was there to grab the orders. And between Mike and Joe not a single arcade guy got away . . . Nat Jones of Linco Tool Co. (which won't be the name of this firm very soon) was in town this past week and was talking with his distrib, Nat Cohn, on what's what in selling hot popcorn vendors . . . Al Cohn of Asco did a marvelous job, right at the show, with Groetchen's new machine . . .

So did Jack Schoenbach who doesn't believe in me too much and whom I believe is one of the grandest guys in the whole wide world . . . Bumped into Al and Dave Simon at the show and tho we didn't exchange words — we felt alike . . . Jack Briedt, Murray Weiner and Bill Weiner did one swell job at their booths with their new U-Need-A Pak Vendors. I should know. Their booths were right next to mine.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

Biggest news of the week, now that everyone is back from the big convention in Chicago, is that E. Jay Bullock resigned from SCAMOA (Southern California Music Operators Assn.) to lead a brand new association composed of retail record dealers in this area. It seems that Jay has been working with all the record sellers to get them straightened away with the many problems which confront them at this time, especially the Petrillo ban, and has made it possible for the retailers to realize that their business wasn't going to hell because Petrillo had decided to ban recordings. It will be somewhat of a blow to have Jay leave the music machine ops here, but, we do wish him the greatest and grandest success with this new Retail Music Dealers Assn. and believe that his industry, ingenuity and foresightedness will make this a grand organization.

Say, Paul and Lucille Laymon (two very, very favorite people of mine) are thrilled to little tiny pieces over the marvelous reception given the new Bally "Melody" five-ball by each and everyone of the ops who has seen it. Paul is greatly enthused and Lucille tells me that business just simply jumped from the moment they returned. What a grand twosome these two are . . . Say, this should make a lot of you guys and gals plenty happy over the country (since we have been given to understand by our publisher that this column is exceptionally well read) that the coinmen here are much, much more optimistic than they have been in many, many moons. They're getting back into the old swing and are punching out like fireballs all over again. Pardon our ego, but, like we've always said, you can depend on California's sons and daughters to come off that mat—but fast — and keep punching harder than ever before.

Jack Simon of Sicking, Inc. has been plenty busy since his return from the Chi convention. Right now Jack is featuring Bally's great "Melody" game and Gottlieb's "Lady Robin Hood" on his floor and has every-one of the ops coming in and ordering and talking and discussing and kibitzing. Jack is all hot and bothered and happy over the fine business jump his firm is suddenly enjoying . . . Charley Fulcher of Mills Sales Co., Ltd., offices here took himself over to Las Vegas for some business. You can depend on Charley to come back with his pockets full of orders. He's one guy that "never misses", as the expression goes, and stays on the job 24 hours per day, if necessary, to please any customer of the firm . . . Bud Parr and Fred Gaunt, both of whom remained here in sunny and warm (very warm) Los Angeles (and dry) without attending the convention, have been busy all day long with the new '48 Rock-Ola Magic-Glo phono and have done a very, very grand job from what reports we've been able to obtain. Seems that Fred and Bud are all enthused over their new distributorship and the fact that they are getting orders from right and from left has made them feel happier than they have felt in many, many moons. These boys can be depended on to do a real job.

Say, I want to stop right here and now and tell youse and youse and youse all about me. I'm leaving The Cash Box. Not that I want to, but, because circumstances dictate that I do. Anyway, I've enjoyed every single second of being with you guys. I've never met a sweeter, lovelier, sweller bunch of people. I've been happy with The Cash Box and I only wish that I could continue. But, there are times we must do what we promise to do and I'm one of those guys who likes to live up to promises. (Maybe I'll be back with you guys sooner than you expect.) Anyway, what I started out to say is that someone will be taking my place here on The Cash Box staff to handle the Los Angeles offices. I only hope that I can be of service to everyone of you. Don't hesitate to call me, please. I want you to feel that even tho I'm no longer with the grand guys and gals who make up this mag each and every week (and, believe me, that's a tough enough job in itself) I'm still in love with 'em and I'm for 'em one zillion per cent. So just call on me, if you so desire, and I'll be right in there telling you what a great and grand publication The Cash Box is and what very, very swellish people are behind it. I could probably go on like this for hours on end. But, I believe that everyone in California and, in fact, up and down the entire West Coast and thruout the eleven western states, knows what swell people there are at The Cash Box. So, I'm saying goodbye to you and you and you with this last column of mine and I most sincerely hope that you and you and you will believe me when I say, "Au revoir" — but, not goodbye.

Bill Wolf of M. S. Wolf Distributing Co. claims top sales around these parts with AMI boxes. Those that wish to argue with him, Bill says, can call around for a friendly chat. And, there's no doubt, before they're finished — they, too, will have bought some AMI's. Wotta salesman, wotta salesman . . . Say, betcha Aubrey Stemler has somethin' up his sleeve. Noted that Aubrey attended the convention in Chicago in company with some of the biggest of the big shots in the field and, from what seemed to be the most intimate of intimate conversations, Aubrey is destined to suddenly bust loose with an announcement which may surprise everyone concerned. Can't keep a good man down, or some such adage, should apply to this situation . . . From what I hear Eddie Smith formerly of Emby Distrib. Co., New York, may soon be seen on his ranch in the San Fernando. Eddie was one of the Southern Calif. boys for a short while before traveling out to that Big Town.

Betcha that Al Sleight, Bally's regional man here, won't get over that Bally Bowler beatin' he took from our publisher, Bill Gersh, for sometime to come. Bill simply needed Al into a game, but, what Al didn't know was that Bill had been winning right along at the Bally factory, and Al thot he had himself a "sucker" — until Bill threw the first 4 balls—and Al hollered "murderer" — even worse than Betty Hutton would . . . Ed Wisler is one kid who is happy. But happy. After what Ed saw in action at the Aireon suite at the Morrison Hotel in Chicago, he tells me, he's all set to make his first zillion bucks. And, from reports we have already received, he may certainly do so — with the kind of action which Aireon got for their new low priced phono giving the ops 26 months to pay only $4 per week . . . Floyd Bittaker and George Oliver and some of the other boys of Capitol Records were really in action over at the CMI convention. Simply couldn't get to Bittaker who, in addition to being at the Capitol Records booth, held office in room 1010 at the Sherman and was being propositioned by the music boys at the show . . . And Leon Rene of Exclusive Records, they tell me, went thru the coin show like a whirlwind. People who heard he was "on the floor" rushed hither and thither to meet with him, but, just simply couldn't find him. In fact, our own little publication had three photogs stationed all over the place looking for him to grab a pic — and all reported he must simply have disappeared. Grand guy, Leon Rene, and we sure feel bad we missed him at this show.

Everyone feels bad that this was one time that Art Rupe of Specialty Records didn't get to Chi. There were many, many people who wanted to meet with Art and tell him what a grand job he was doing with Roy Milton. But, Art was so busy out here in sunny Cal that he just couldn't get away. And, just wait until you hear about all the changes which he made these past weeks which means more and still more bucks for his music machine friends.

MINNEAPOLIS

The Northwest, including the Twin Cities, are still in the grips of sub-zero weather, and there doesn't seem to be any relief in sight. International Falls has a cool 30 degrees below zero, and Minneapolis and St. Paul aren't much better with 20 degrees below zero. Still, many operators throughout the Northwest territory are driving in to the Twin Cities to do their business.

Bob Cross of Jackson, Minnesota drove into Minneapolis just for the day after just arriving from a three week vacation in Los Angeles, California . . . NEW ORLEANS

Coinmen who couldn't get to the CMI convention for one reason or another thought they would get a reprieve from the cold weather in the windy city, but the cold wave didn't pass up little New Orleans. It's been extremely cold here for the past few weeks . . . Bob Buckley, Console Distributing Company, was unable to attend the Chicago convention as he was too interested in the election taking place here. Mrs. Buckley held up from making the trip due to illness . . . Louis Boasberg,

New Orleans Novelty Company, back from Chicago, tells of meeting with Bill Gersh of The Cash Box.

Bill Holfield, after being delayed on his way home due to some trouble with the Diesel on the Panama Limited, finally got home . . . Jules Peres and his missus still telling about their adventures in Chicago. They really made the rounds and had themselves a time. Jules telling the New Orleans music operators all about the new Alreon "Coronet 400" phono . . . Sam Tridico's daughter Veda Marie, entertained a large group of her friends with a dinner party at their home in Norco, La. . . . Coinmen will be on hand to view the Christening of a new tug from the Avondale Marine Ways by Margaret Truman this week. The ship will be called "The President Truman".

The Gubernatorial election here found two former Governors of Louisiana in the second primary. Earl K. Long, brother of the famous Huey P. Long, is one, and the other is Sam Jones. Natives here are bemoaning the fact that both these men couldn't take office at one time. . . . O. C. Marshall, New Orleans Coin Machine Exchange, traveling thru Northern Louisiana . . . Henry Fox rushed back from the Coin Machine Show to put the finishing touches on a deal with one of the big clubs . . . Nick Carbarjal, Crown Novelty Company, too busy at his office to say more than "hello" . . . Lester Fremin in from Thibodaux, La. and seen buying some Buckley parts at Console Distributing Company . . . Prosper Donnaud, Luling, La., visiting in N.O. and reports biz very good.

ST. LOUIS

St. Louis coinmen, altho back from the CMI Convention almost a week, still talking about the many happenings there. As has been the practice for many years, a St. Louis room was on hand for local as well as coinmen from all over the country who wanted to visit.

Carl Trippe, Ideal Novelty Company, was one of the busiest men at the show — running from the Sherman to the Morrison to visit with the Rock-Ola gang — then to the various booths on the floor to see his other factory exhibits . . . Jack Rosenfeld, Jack Rosenfeld Company, meets up with Mac Churvis, the Chicago advertising man, and they talk about the war days when they both were at the same Naval Station in Chicago.

Nat Wolf, Rosenfeld's right hand man, covers the exhibits with his camera, as he has for many years previously. Wolf, who used to bring his dog with him to the show every year, did a solo this trip. Since his last dog died, he gave up this hobby . . . Del Veatch, V. P. Distributing Company, had a few very busy days entertaining his daughter who is attending college in the windy city. Del was plenty excited over the new Alreon phono.

Ben Axelrod and Al Haneklau, Olive Novelty Company, took in the show together. Ben very proud of his son, who is finishing up his college course this year and intends to join up with General Electric on the west coast . . . Walter Gummshheimer, Universal Distributing Co., featured the "Hilco" Ice Cream Vendor which vends a Borden's "Frostick".
